

Camp YHA 2017

Camp Welfare Volunteer

In this role you will support campers and volunteers to get the most out of their experience by listening and offering advice.

Volunteer as a Camp Welfare Volunteer and we will give you

- Valuable skills and experience for your future career
- A reference and certificate
- Free YHA membership
- Free food and accommodation whilst you volunteer
- Bespoke training
- Travel expenses of up to £120

As a Camp Welfare Volunteer you will

- Coach volunteers and campers who are experiencing challenges on Camp
- Promote the development of volunteers and campers through an empowering and participative approach
- Help volunteers and campers identify personal goals and how these can be achieved
- Provide advice to the Camp Manager about supporting individuals
- Follow a standard framework to report on coaching sessions
- Maintain a log of issues raised

Apply to become a Camp Welfare Volunteer if you

- Have experience in mentoring or counselling
- Have experience of supporting young people and can support them to develop new skills and perspectives
- Are considering or working towards a career or qualification in mentoring or counselling
- Can empower, inspire and motivate others
- Are patient, encouraging, perceptive and a great communicator

This role is available at YHA Edale (Derbyshire) and Coalbrookdale (Shropshire).

The time commitment for this role is at least one week, preferably two, plus the weekend training course.

Requirements

- Be able to attend a training course on 14 - 16 July at YHA Edale (Derbyshire)
- Enhanced DBS check
- 2 satisfactory references, at least one must be from someone who can comment on your conduct with young people
- You must be aged 18 or over on 23 July 2017
- A full driving licence is desirable

